

Annual Alternative Gift Fair, Dec. 2

For the thirty-first consecutive year the Alternative Gift Fair will be held in Riverside on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 2. Again this year the Universalist Unitarian Church and the First United Methodist Church are co-hosting this unique and festive event in First Methodist's spacious Fellowship Hall, 4845 Brockton Ave. The Gift Fair is free and open to the public, offering a wide variety of Fair Trade items from around the world along with special gift ideas from selected local crafts people and artisans.

This one-day, once-a-year opportunity runs from noon to 3 p.m. Participating organizations offering their creative gift possibilities include Heifer International, 10,000 Villages, Madison Street Church, Habitat for Humanity, United Methodist Women, Temple Beth El, Fellowship of Reconciliation, First United Methodist Church, Third World Gifts & Handarts, Hindu Society of the Inland Empire, Trinity Lutheran Church, Lutheran World Relief, Universalist Unitarian Church, Green Sanctuary, Friends' Church, and Equal Exchange.

All are invited -- come to the Fair to meet new friends and old, partake of a delicious, filling, donation-supported luncheon, learn more about Fair Trade products, discover gift ideas found nowhere else in the city, enjoy music, dance and songs of the season, experience a relaxing pace in a convivial setting. Plenty of parking is available at the back of the church. For further information call 951-682-1040.

Kris Lovekin
First United Methodist Church
Riverside

David Mowry
Universalist Unitarian Church
Riverside