

PRESS RELEASE FOR NONVIOLENT PEACEFORCE Presentation

What can you say YES to when you say NO to war? Come hear of Gandhi's Peace Army Today, a Conversation with *David Hartsough, co-founder of NONVIOLENT PEACEFORCE: Monday, December 3, 3:30-5pm at UCR's Humanities and Social Studies Room 1500.

David Hartsough has 4 decades experience with nonviolent solutions to conflicts, from the civil rights lunch counter sit-ins, to peacemaking in the former Soviet Union, Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Kosovo and the Philippines.

NONVIOLENT PEACEFORCE has created a large-scale peacekeeping force by training groups of international civilians in proven nonviolent strategies, who then become a paid, unarmed, protective force which goes, as invited, into areas of conflict, like Sri Lanka, the Philippines, and Guatemala.

Learn how you can help tip the balance to a culture where nonviolent solutions predominate. All are welcome to this FREE event. Park in Lots 1 or 6 with credit card.

Sponsored by UCR Mellon Workshop Series on Gandhi's Legacy
Contact: Prof. David Biggs dbiggs@ucr.edu or Linda Dunn 682-5634